About Smack's Chicken Shack

Chef Keenen Hendricks has been cooking for over nine years. He started out as a line cook at places such as Hot Joy and the well-known Southtown hot spot, The Monterey. He then went on to open Supper at Hotel Emma. He has also worked at places such as Boiler House at the Pearl and most recently was the sous chef for Bakery Lorraine, where he went on to help open their recent location at the Rim. During his time at Bakery Lorraine, he did pop-ups on the weekends with a constantly changing menu. That is how Smack's Chicken Shack was born!

Smack's Chicken Shack is a concept built around large fried chicken sandwiches. Their menu consists of items such as their Nashville Hot, Big Smack, and very popular loaded fries. They also run new specials weekly and are known for doing a WIDE variety of chicken sandwiches!
